Mishra Shri Bhairon Prasad

Will the Minister of PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of complaints received by the Government regarding misconduct by IAS and IPS officers in the country especially in Uttar Pradesh; and

(b) the action taken by the Government against them so far?

Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions and Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office. (DR. JITENDRA SINGH)
(a) & (b): During the year upto October 2016, Government has received 331 complaints against IAS officers, out of which 43 complaints are against IAS officers of Uttar Pradesh; and 115 complaints against IPS officers, out of which 15 complaints are against IPS officers of Uttar Pradesh. Complaints against IAS/IPS officers on matters pertaining to the Government of India are examined by their respective cadre controlling authority i.e. Department of Personnel & Training / Ministry of Home Affairs respectively, on merits. Appropriate action under relevant Rules of the All India Services is taken against delinquent officials after the cases reach finality. Complaints against IAS/IPS officers on matters pertaining to the affairs of the State Governments are forwarded to the State Governments as the competent authority for appropriate action.
